

KCC Recognition of Volunteers | 2021

The Kingsburg Coastal Conservancy would not be able to fulfill its mandate without the commitment and dedication of our volunteers. In particular, we would like to acknowledge the following groups and individuals who are committed to the success of our organization:

- Nathan Bald (and family) – who help to clear our paths from deadfall each spring
- Bob Buckley – all things Gaff Point, advisor to the Board and one of our auditors
- Noreen Channels – bookkeeper, membership coordinator and archivist, property mapping
- Seth Congdon – West Ironbound Island advisor and lead steward
- Gaff Point Stewards
- Bill Gerhardt – for providing labour and equipment for the View Lot and cutting it bi-weekly
- Hazen Trueman – who helps maintain our View Lot and has built three benches for the lot
- Larry Gaudet – who provided an audit of our finances for the last fiscal year
- Larry Glenwright of Lunenburg Seaport - provides summer dockage and assists us with our boat care
- Piotr Luczak (Burke MacDonald Luczak) – our lawyer who provides his services pro bono
- Gerald Mossman – who ensures that our mooring on the island is safe and secure
- Jay Muise – one of our West Ironbound Island advisors and stewards
- Wendy Muise – our ‘on the ground’ courier, ensures our bills are paid, runner, problem solver, etc
- Nature Conservancy of Canada (NCC) and volunteers
- Hubert Saint Onge – who provided an audit of our finances for the last fiscal year
- Arnie Schuster – technology consultation
- Jake Wentzell – our West Ironbound Island shepherd and who restored the cottage systems for water and solar
- All those volunteers who assist our community coordinator in social activities
